REGULATIONS

1. LUCAS – International Festival for Young Film Lovers presents in its program films - innovative both in their aesthetic form and in their content. We are looking for outstanding productions which appeal to young film lovers of various ages. This includes films made specifically for young audiences as well as films on account of their form and content. LUCAS is organized by Deutsches Filminstitut – DIF e.V. (Schaumainkai 41, 60596 Frankfurt).
2. The 41th LUCAS – International Festival for Young Film Lovers will take place in Frankfurt, Germany and the Rhein-Main region, from 20.-27.09.2018. The festival is open for a wide range of fiction, documentary, animation, experimental and hybrid films. The films will be shown in competition, out of competition and in special programs.
3. Films submitted for the short film competition must meet the following criteria:
 - + The film has a maximum length of 30 min.
 - + The film has not been presented before in a festival or at other public events in Germany and is not available for public viewing on the internet.
 - + Only films which have been produced between 2016 and 2018 are eligible.
 - + Only entries that can provide a DCP screening copy with English Subtitles will be accepted.
4. A selection committee chooses films for the competition. The selection process will not be public and there is no legal right to enter the competition.
5. The awards are decided upon by two international juries – consisting of children and young adults as well as film professionals. The jury's decision is final, and the jury does not need to justify their decisions.
Awards:
 - + Award for Best Feature Film in the age category 8+ (5.000 €) and 13+ (5.000 €),
 - + Award for the Best Short Film in the age category 8+ (2.000 €) and 13+ (2.000 €),
 - + Award for an Outstanding Cinematic Achievement (2.000 €)+Moreover, LUCAS bestows the unendowed Audience Award as well as the award of the European Children's Film Association (ECFA).
6. After a film's entry into competition has been publicly announced, a withdrawal of the film is no longer possible.
7. Films will only be screened in original language with English subtitles. Selected short films in competition may be translated into German for voice-over by the festival.
8. The Festival acknowledges that for each film the international regulations authorise a total of no more than three screenings.
9. The deadline for entering short films is May 4, 2018. By then the selection committee must have received: the film on DVD/BluRay or as online link, a completed entry form with all attachments.
10. The above mentioned DVDs/BluRays will not be returned.
11. A DCP/print of the film is to be sent only after an official invitation has been received. The DCP/film print must arrive at least 10 days before the festival starts.
12. Unless negotiated otherwise, the participants have to cover the costs for transport, insurance and customs.
13. The festival covers the insurance of the DCPs/film prints while they are on location in Frankfurt, from their arrival until they are given back to the shipper.
14. Only the rights holder or his representative can enter a film. The festival requests that a DVD/BluRay/file of the film is deposited in the festivals archive.
15. Entering a film means the acceptance of the festival's regulations.
16. The management of the festival is authorized to change the festival's regulations in special cases but only in accordance with the international regulations.
17. The festival's legal domicile is Frankfurt am Main, Germany.
